Never too s

e've waited for spring, for the birds to finally sing.
there trying to cope, everyone is asking for hope.

You are never too small to make a diff'rence,
and now we're standing and taking back our hopes and dreams.

Oh, how long we dreamed of today, frozen lakes aren't melting away.
Stay aware, keep trying to teach our new world is not out of reach.

You are never too small ...

We will never stop talking and we will never stop fighting, we stand as united as can be, we are unstoppable, we have to find a way.

You are never too small ...
