STUTT GART URTEXT EDITION

At Carus "Urtext" stands for historical-critical editions designed for practical performance. Carus aims to publish the complete sacred vocal music (and in some cases the secular music) for the major composers in our music program. For many editions study scores are also available. The repertoire is regularly being expanded. The "Stuttgarter Ausgaben" of works by Bach, Mozart, Schubert and Mendelssohn are recognized world wide as leading Urtext editions of sacred repertoire and include the latest musicological research and newly discovered sources.

VOCAL SCORES

for study, rehearsal and concert

Carus's carefully-edited vocal scores have proved their worth in performance through their high-quality printing and presentation and reliable content. With their clear-to-read musical layout and idiomatic, playable keyboard parts they have become an indispensable part of choir rehearsals and concerts. The music text is based on up-to-date historical-critical Urtext editions, with matching complete performance material also available.

Carus · Urtext

Our Urtext editions aim to provide a reliable music text, free of extraneous additions made in later centuries. The music is edited according to the latest scholarly standards, taking into account all currently-known sources. The aim is to reflect the composer's intentions as closely as possible. All editorial decisions – from the choice of primary source to individual variant readings – are documented and discussed in the Critical Report, and editorial additions to the music text – such as in parallel passages – are indicated accordingly. The foreword offers performers important information about the work and the history of its composition, together with suggestions for performance practice.

carus plus

Vocal score XL · large print

With Vocal scores XL we are offering important choral works in reader-friendly large print. Choral singers can now enjoy the clear-to-read music text and high-quality presentation of Carus vocal scores in larger print. (see p. 27)

carus music, the choir app, and Carus Choir Coach · practice aids

Innovative practice aids from Carus, available as CD or app, help choral singers to quickly learn new repertoire: they contain first-class recordings with the individual voice part amplified, making learning by listening much easier. Pieces can also be practiced at a slowed-down tempo (Coach) so that complicated passages can be worked on effectively. In the CD series Carus Choir Coach a separate CD containing each choir part is available for every vocal range. carus music, the choir app, also offers a well laid-out music text from the Carus vocal scores, with a marker feature in the software enabling users to follow the music. More than 90 of the most important works from the international standard repertoire for choirs are already available in carus music, the choir app. The repertoire is regularly being expanded: www.carus-music.com

St. John Passion BWV 245 carus plus

Solo T (Evangelist), Solo B (Jesus), Soli SATB, Coro SATB, 2 Fl, 2 Ob, 2 VI, Va, Vg, Bc 120 min /

ed. Peter Wollny in cooperation with the Bach-Archiv Leipzig

Bach's St. John Passion underwent several fundamental changes during Bach's lifetime. Carus offers all of these surviving versions with the original German and singable English text.

Traditional version (1739/1749) (dt/en)

31.245/93 Vocal score
31.245/94 Vocal score XL
 / Carus Choir Coach

Additional versions:

version I (1724)

Resembles Version IV but cannot be reconstructed. For movement 19/20 the scoring variant with viola d'amore is available.
(Carus 31.245/81+82).

version II (1725)

31.245/53 Vocal score
This version differs most clearly from the frequently performed traditional version. It integrates the St. John Passion into the annual cycle of chorale cantatas. Scoring like version 1749 (IV), but slightly different (2 Ob/2 Obca, Obda).

version III (1732?)

The amendments contained in this version are largely lost.

version IV (1749)

31.245/03 Vocal score
The version of 1749 corresponds largely to Version I and – from movement 11 onwards – also to the frequently performed traditional version, although some alterations in the text are prominent and the scoring deviates somewhat from the traditional version.
The score and performance material of this version enable the performance of the version 1749
as well as the traditional version.

Ludwig van Beethoven (1770–1827)

In 2020 the music world will celebrate the anniversary of Ludwig van Beethoven. With the Beethoven vocal project, Carus-Verlag is making accessible Beethoven's choral music. The two masses are available in modern Urtext editions, and for the final movement of the 9th Symphony a practical performing vocal score has been newly arranged. Many other choral works, e.g. his only oratorio The Mount of Olives, will expand our vocal program.

George Frideric Handel

George Frideric Handel (1685–1759)

Without the vocal works of Handel the music world would be unthinkable. The Messiah is among the most performed oratorios in the genre since the 18th century and a number of his other works have also found a secure place in the choral repertoire, such as the Dettingen Te Deum. The number of Handel's works in the Carus music program includes his popular works, as well as those treasures which for the most part are unknown.

Johann Michael Haydn (1737–1806)

The younger Haydn brother composed music for practically all of the official Catholic rites – corresponding to his official obligations. Stylistically, Haydn's 43-year career at Salzburg represents a transition between the music of the early classic and the Biedermeier periods. In the context of the Johann Michael Haydn Edition over 60 choral works with complete performance material are currently available from Carus and the Edition is continually being expanded.

Joseph Haydn

Joseph Haydn (1732–1809)

At the center of Joseph Haydn's church music oeuvre in the narrower, liturgical sense are his settings of the Latin Mass, which ranged from his first small-scale missae breves of 1749/50 to the late, great mass compositions written for the princely Esterházy family. There are also, along with some short church works such as motets and offertories, a major settings of the Te Deum in C major two Salve Reginas, and a Stabat Mater.

Gottfried August Homilius (1714–1785)

The Dresden Kreuzkantor and Bach student Gottfried August Homilius left an extensive oeuvre. Many motets, cantatas and oratorios, as well as instrumental music have been preserved. In their day the compositions of Homilius were very popular and were extraordinarily well circulated. Since 2006 the edition of his Selected Works, edited by Uwe Wolf, is being published by Carus. As well as important oratorios – opulently scored and with large-scale choral movements – and the complete motets, Carus also publishes cantatas for various times in the church year in critical editions.

Felix Mendelssohn Bartholdy (1809–1847)

The sacred choral works of Felix Mendelssohn Bartholdy span nearly the composer's entire career, and encompass an especially rich cross section of his music. The completion of the Carus edition culminates more than two decades of effort to make available to the public critical performing editions of the complete sacred music, including 38 works published for the first time.

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756–1791)

The complete church music of Mozart is available from Carus in critical editions. Edited by renowned musicologists, not only are the established works included; rather, in addition to the masses the complete smaller works and less well known works are also available. With the "Stuttgart Mozart Editions" his church music is available with the complete performance material, among them the completions of the unfinished compositions: the Requiem and the C Minor Mass by Robert D. Levin as well as a new edition of the C Minor Mass by Frieder Bernius and Uwe Wolf.

Josef Rheinberger
Josef Gabriel Rheinberger (1839–1901)

The Liechtenstein composer is no longer regarded as one of the unknown composers of the 19th century. This is due, in large part, to the 48-volume Complete Edition of the works of Josef Gabriel Rheinberger, which has been published by Carus in cooperation with the Rheinberger-Archiv in Vaduz. In order to facilitate performances, Carus also offers the works which are published in the Complete Edition as separate editions with complete performance material.

Franz Schubert (1797–1828)

Franz Schubert

Carus-Verlag has published almost all the sacred choral works of Franz Schubert. Many of the smaller liturgical compositions are published here for the first time in separate editions. An exciting oeuvre awaits rediscovery: Simple, unsophisticated movements stand next to more demanding choral parts and soloistic-virtuoso concert pieces.

Georg Philipp Telemann (1681–1767)

Telemann himself attached a great importance to church music in his creative output. Carus is publishing a selection of the prolific sacred works of this composer. The Carus "Telemann-Archiv" series offers over 100 vocal and instrumental works which were published in critical editions with complete performance material. In recognition of its service to the music of Georg Philipp Telemann Carus was awarded the prestigious Georg Philipp Telemann Prize (2009) by the provincial capital of Magdeburg, Telemann's birthplace. In 2019 editor Klaus Hofmann will be awarded this prize.

Antonio Vivaldi (1678–1741)

Vivaldi's Gloria was the first edition to be published by Carus-Verlag, at a time when the sacred music of this Italian Baroque composer was largely unknown. This edition of the Gloria has found great acceptance worldwide. Since then, Carus has striven to present a complete edition of the unjustly forgotten sacred vocal music of Vivaldi.
